

TAX PRODIGY

Tax Prodigy Appoints David. A Kovar as Interim CEO

Minneapolis, MN December 6, 2019 - Tax Prodigy has named David A. Kovar Interim Chief Executive Officer.

"This is a significant move to continue fueling the Tax Prodigy growth and deliver on our brand promise to provide Simple, Powerful and Fast technology for tax professionals. David is a tax technology professional with 20 years of experience, amazing insights and a track record of success," says Nick Frank, founder of Tax Prodigy.

David will draw on his background as a longtime strategic tax technology partner for some of the largest companies in the world including the Big Four. He has designed and implemented tax technology with the primary focus of freeing tax professionals from the prison of bad systems and processes.

"When I saw Tax Prodigy's unique approach to ASC 740, I knew I had to get involved! The solution is elegant, intuitive and accurate. It is designed by tax professionals for tax professionals," says Kovar.

Tax Prodigy

Tax Prodigy is a corporate income tax technology company. Our lead product Tax Prodigy Provision is the simplest yet most technically comprehensive solution available in accounting for income taxes under ASC 740. Tax Prodigy 's fully integrated, balance sheet rollforward approach is organized around the requirements of ASC 740 improving accuracy, saving time, and driving efficiencies.

For more information, visit <http://www.taxprodigy.com>

Contact Us

contactus@taxprodigy.com

info@taxprodigy.com

